Collin is responsible for the relationship management and administration of trust accounts for affluent clients.

Collin tailors our comprehensive services to help clients build, manage and transition their wealth. He also leverages his legal background to help clients protect their financial portfolio and to develop durable solutions to their unique problems. Collin is well versed in reviewing legal and financial documents.

Collin brings over seven years of trust, estate and financial experience to his role. Prior to joining Associated Trust Company, he served as an advisor for a not-for-profit on the management and administration of approximately 2,000 complex disability based trusts. He was also a private practice attorney who focused on estate and trust planning (including special needs trust), elder law, special needs planning, guardianships and family law matters.

Professionally, Collin is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, the Elder Law Bar Section, Real Property, Probate & Trust Law Bar Section and the National Academy of Elder Law Attorney. He is also actively involved in his community by proudly serving on the board for the Center of Visual Arts and Northern Valley Industries in Wausau. He also is a member of the trust committee for the not-for-profit, Life Navigators.
